

Operation: Can You Hear Us Now?

Alpharetta Chapter of North Georgia 9-12 Presents

Operation: Can You Hear Us Now?

Are you tired of the Mainstream Media Bias?

Do you ever feel like your voice isn't heard and that you don't count?

September 12th was only the beginning....

Here's what's next - - We are PEACEFULLY protesting the COMPLICIT and BIASED media on the sidewalks outside CNN's headquarters in downtown Atlanta.

We will be protesting from CNN Center and up the Marietta St. sidewalk to the Atlanta Journal Constitution headquarters located at 72 Marietta St. We will (and must) stay on the sidewalks - we do not have permits to close the streets or for Centennial Olympic Park due to previously scheduled concurrent events.

Be Counted!

The theme for this protest is the obvious Media Complicity/Media Bias!

Since the media can't count - - we're going to help them! Look for volunteers who will be handing out numbers we'll all be wearing on our back - - like the Peachtree Road Race. We'll even pin them on your back for you! You can view an example of what we will be wearing on the web at www.northgeorgia912.com.

*We need to be sure to stay on message. This isn't an anti-Obama rally.
